

1. Public Executive Summary

This document describes the first version of a display system using multiple projectors to produce immersive/3D images. The modular architecture will be realised using Fraunhofer HHI CineBox and CineCard products, DoReMi servers and Digital Projection projectors but will be designed to be as flexible as possible.

Version 1 has been used to develop the interfaces between the various elements of the system including the calibration system.